

Day 1, Wednesday 21st November 2007

Royal Armouries, Leeds

08:30 Registration and coffee

09:00 Opening remarks

Session 1 - Chairs, Marcus Haw & Neil Wilson Single Ventricle Physiology

09:10 Aortic stenosis in the neonate with a borderline left heart balloon or surgery? Mike Burch, London

09:30 Surgical approaches for the neonate with a borderline left heart David Barron, Birmingham

09:50 Late results of treatment for HLHS are we really doing the right thing for these patients? Tony Salmon, Southampton

10:10 Stenting the arterial duct: Solution to a difficult problem or difficult problem without a solution? John Gibbs, Leeds

10:30 Stenting the arterial duct: Current application and results Shak Qureshi, London

10:50 Stenting the arterial duct: The Boston experience Pedro Del Nido, Boston, USA

11:10 COFFEE AND EXHIBITS

Session 2 - Chairs, Frances Bu'lock, David Dickinson Abstracts & Training

11:40 Abstracts - 4 x 8 Mins with 2 minutes for questions

12:30 MMC and Training - is there any workforce planning? Judy Curson, WRT

12:50 MMC and Training - What is the future for training for specialists in CHD? John Gibbs, Leeds

13:10 LUNCH, EXHIBITS AND POSTERS / BCCA council

Session 3a - Chairs, Gurleen Sharland, Denise Kitchener Fetal Cardiology

14:10 Is there still geographical variation in the antenatal diagnosis of CHD in 2007? Gurleen Sharland, London

14:30 Does fetal echocardiography improve outcome in children with CHD? Chris Wren, Newcastle

14:50 Cardiac intervention in the fetus, does it really do any good? Neil Wilson, Oxford

Session 3b - Chair, Kevin Watterson

15:10 A tribute to Olive Scott Gordon Williams, Leeds

15:30 COFFEE, EXHIBITS AND POSTERS

Sesion 4a - Chair, Rafael Guerrero

16.00 GUEST LECTURE The future for congenital cardiac surgery Pedro Del Nido, Boston

Session 4b - Business Meeting

16:45 BCCA business meeting

18:15 Depart Royal Armouries for Gala Dinner

Day 2, Thursday 22nd November 2007
Royal Armouries, Leeds

08:40	Registration and coffee
	Session 5 - Chairs, Carole Warnes and John Gibbs Timing of the Fontan operation
09:00	Are all Fontans destined to fail? - When and why?	Sara Thorne, Birmingham
09:20	Non-transplant surgical options for the failing Fontan	Marcus Haw, Southampton
09:40	Interventional options for problems in Fontans	Kevin Walsh, Dublin
10.00	Medical therapy for the failing Fontan	Graham Stuart, Bristol
10.20	COFFEE, EXHIBITS AND POSTERS
	Session 6a - Chairs, Chris Wren and Mike Blackburn Pacing in Congenital Heart Disease
10.45	Long term outcomes in paediatric pacing	Karen Mcloed, Glasgow
11.05	Pacing the difficult heart-Novel developments and approaches to pacing in CHD	Joe de Giovanni, Birmingham
11.25	Resynchronisation therapy in congenital heart disease	Mark Turner, Bristol
	Session 6b - Guest Lecture - Chair John Parsons
11.45	ACHD - what does current practice in paediatric cardiology mean for the adult patient of the future?	Carole Warnes, Mayo
12.30	LUNCH, EXHIBITS AND POSTERS
	Session 7 - Chairs, Brodie Knight and Mike Burch Acute heart failure in Congenital Heart Disease
13.30	Understanding and preventing acute myocardial failure after cardiopulmonary bypass	Masimo Caputo, Bristol
13.50	What is the outlook for acute cardiomyopathy in children?	John O'Sullivan, Newcastle
14.10	Non transplant surgical options in acute heart failure	Carin Van Doorn, London
14.30	COFFEE, EXHIBITS AND POSTERS
	Session 8 - Chairs, Mark Turner and Tony Salmon Chronic Heart failure in Congenital Heart Disease
15.00	Pregnancy in the patient with ventricular dysfunction	Carole Warnes, Mayo
15.20	Can we transfer lessons from acquired heart disease trials to Congenital Heart Disease	Lorna Swan, Brompton
15.40	Never mind the hype, the truth about cardiac transplantation in Congenital Heart Disease	Asif Hassan, Newcastle
16.00	Modern echo-improving the diagnosis and treatment of heart failure in Congenital Heart Disease	John Simpson, London
16.20	CLOSING REMARKS	