

RCPCH Research Awards 2021

Submission deadline: Monday 30 November 2020
For enquiries, please contact research@rcpch.ac.uk

Dr Simon Newell Early Independent Researcher Award

RCPCH, Sparks and GOSH offer the Simon Newell award to an outstanding young medically qualified research in British paediatrics.

The winner receives a trophy, £1,000 and a further £1,000 to the winner's department. In addition, the winner receives a day entry pass and expenses covered to the RCPCH Conference and Exhibition.

Apply: www.rcpch.ac.uk/simon-newell-award

Donald Paterson Prize

Awarded to the author of the best article on any subject related to paediatrics published or accepted within two years prior to November 2020.

The winner receives £200 and a certificate, in addition to expenses covered for travel, and a day entry pass to the RCPCH Conference and Exhibition

Apply: www.rcpch.ac.uk/donald-paterson-prize

RCPCH-NIHR PIER Prize

The PIER (Paediatric Involvement and Engagement in Research) Prize recognises excellent patient engagement and significant contributions to the NIHR clinical research network.

The winner receives a trophy and complimentary day attendance to the RCPCH Conference and Exhibition.

Apply: www.rcpch.ac.uk/PIER-prize

